INTELLIGENCE MEMORANDUM

Security Conditions in Certain Countries of Southeast Asia

No. 5

Military action remains unusually light in most sections of Cambodia, and only a few minor Communist harassing attacks in the Phnom Penh area have been reported in the past 24 hours.

The Indonesian government is planning a modest reception for the Vice President which is expected to attract friendly welcoming crowds and thorough media coverage. There are no indications of hostile demonstrations, embarrassing incidents or acts of physical violence planned for the visit. Nonetheless, Indonesian security forces are taking precautionary measures to assure a smooth visit.

There has been no change in the security situations in the other capitals on the Vice President's itinerary.

Note: This security memorandum was prepared by CIA. It was produced by the Office of Current Intelligence and coordinated with the Office of National Estimates and the Clandestine Service.
